INTERNATIONAL SEMINARS are regularly organized throughout the year in different countries.

In the WMF we believe in expanding our knowledge on the global stage.

All participants have an opportunity not only to share experience gained so far, but also to learn something new and to sharpen their skills. It is also a great way to experience new techniques.

Participation in seminars always brings a lot of benefits, for example a knowledge dissemination and networking opportunities. A seminar can be a one-day, compact experience presented by experts, or it may be spread throughout several days with various topics, workshops and round-table discussions. Attendees at a seminar share a common interest in the subject matter. This presents an opportunity to meet face to face with other professionals in the same business. We should also remember that those kinds of events it is possibility to unlock a diversity of fields of our interests through a variety of activities.
